

IMPACT STATEMENT

$40,000

Distributed directly to clients for rent, utility bills, transportation, etc.

1,100

Intimate Partner Violence (IPV) Clients Served

529

One-on-one Counseling Sessions

260

Individuals Received Free Legal Support

149

Free Group Therapy Sessions (art, yoga, etc.)

50

Purple & Teal Shabbat IPV Awareness Events

19

Rabbis in Inaugural Ambassador Program

6

Friends of JCADA IPV Educational Events

While impressive, these are just numbers. Our clients and supporters know JCADA's work is so much more.

Each number represents a person brave enough to ask for help and to seek a safe, empowered life.

Each number represents a person making a commitment to end intimate partner violence, educate others, and create safe, inclusive communities.

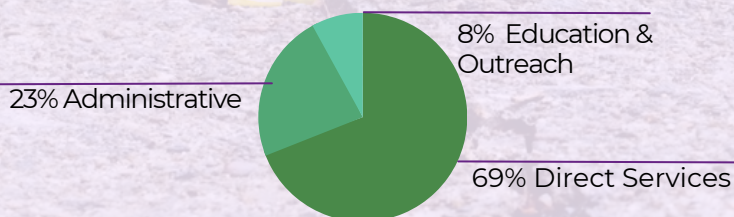

Each number represents the life-saving work of JCADA's highly trained, trauma-informed, compassionate professionals.

Visit jcada.org to read the successful journey of one of JCADA's clients.

FY22 BUDGET REPORT

July 1, 2021 - June 30, 2022

$2M in Expenses

$1.93M in Revenue

THANK YOU

to our granting agencies for their support:

Department of Social Services, Commonwealth of Virginia * Fairfax County Government * Family Services Administration of the Department of Human Services, Government of D.C. * Maryland Governor's Office of Crime Prevention, Youth, & Victim Services * Montgomery County Government * Office of Victim Services and Justice Grants, Executive Office of the Mayor, District of Columbia * Office on Violence Against Women, The U.S. Department of Justice * Substance Abuse & Mental Health Services Administration

JCADA.ORG/DONATE

JCADA stays strong because you stay strong in your commitment to creating communities without abuse. Thank you for standing with JCADA so that we can stand with our clients.